

Chicago Mercantile Exchange (CME) Futures

➤ WHY SHOULD I PARTICIPATE?

Discover new ways to invest in today's volatile markets

Two new classes—take one or both! If you're looking for an efficient way to access the exciting futures markets and hedge your existing portfolio, these classes explain how leverage can help achieve your financial goals. Both classes are taught by a thinkorswim® instructor with 20 years of experience as a futures trader, aided by two market technicians.

NEW: Directional Futures class

Spend an intense day online, focusing on technicals for futures trading and uncovering ways to pinpoint trends and opportunities, as well as general guidelines using stops. You will learn about specific futures contracts and gain an in-depth knowledge of these unique instruments. This class offers an outstanding opportunity to understand futures and how you can profit from directional trading.

NEW: Futures for Portfolio Management class

Two full days of position management strategies provides a comprehensive look at your portfolio. Find out how to execute pairs trading utilizing margin advantages and directional bias between indexes and products. Discover how to use equity futures to protect existing positions and futures to hedge directional positions of options and stocks. This course, taught only in Chicago, includes a tour of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange trading floor and live trading experience in an actual futures pit, as well as a challenging trading game.
